CULTURE NIGHT FINGAL

Fingal County Council Arts Office is delighted to announce an exciting programme of free events taking place in various locations in Fingal to celebrate Culture Night 2018. Culture Night is an annual national public event celebrating culture, creativity and the arts. For one night only arts and cultural organisations, churches, castles and historic houses in Fingal will extend their opening hours to the public, highlighting all the fantastic cultural facilities and talented people in the locality. Join us and enjoy a variety of music, theatre, exhibitions, films, tours and talks specifically programmed for Culture Night at participating venues.

Culture Night events are free however some venues may require advance booking.
