

IRISH APHASIA THEATRE

DO YOU HAVE APHASIA? WE WANT YOU!

Join Us FRIDAY MARCH 29th

@ 4.30pm- 7pm In Draíocht Theatre, D.15

To see Aphasia Theatre (I.A.T'.s) work in action

4.30- 5.30pm - Watch or try our aphasia theatre workshops.

5.30- 6.00pm - Enjoy current participants work in progress theatre pieces.

6.00- 7.00pm - *Short talk on our work and the methods of Theatre & Health in
The global and Irish contexts.*

Refreshments.

Booking Essential.

Call; (086) 062 1393

Email; hallahag@tcd.ie

Facebook; IrishAphasiatheatre

We use theatre, movement and music to engage participants who have aphasia in the Irish arts.

Participants are facilitated to express themselves via theatre methods and develop their communication skills.

Gráinne Hallahan is a theatre director, writer and facilitator. She will run Aphasia Theatre Workshops with an actor/ facilitator, a musical composer/ facilitator and a choreographer/ facilitator in 2018/2019.

First run for Trinity College Dublin in 2017.

Comhairle Contae Fine Gall
Fingal County Council

create national development agency for collaborative arts

