

AN URGENT ENQUIRY

Fingal County Council's Arts Office in association with the Resort Residency programme at Lynders Mobile Home Park are pleased to invite you to

AN URGENT ENQUIRY – FINGAL

Funded through the Arts Council of Ireland 'Invitation to Collaboration Award'.

SAC- Special Area of ConVersation

by Artists Mary Conroy & Joanna Hopkins

SPECIAL LIVE PERFORMANCE
ON BURROW BEACH 14TH OF SEPTEMBER AT 2PM
MEETING POINT PORTRANE GREEN/FRONT OF BROOK PUB

Places are free but must be booked, Refreshments served.

SAC - Special Area of ConVersation is a temporary art installation on Portrane Beach as part of 'An Urgent Enquiry' artist residency commission, by Artists Mary Conroy and Joanna Hopkins.

This temporary public artwork and a site specific theatre performance represents an amalgamation of ideas and concepts that were processed through the artist's 3 month residency in Fingal. The artwork draws attention to the conservation efforts being carried out in the Fingal area for both humans and wildlife, to highlight the existence, fragility and importance of all the creatures who call the Fingal coastline home.

Special Area of ConVersation will be in situ on Portrane Beach/Burrow Beach Saturday 14th from 2pm - 6pm & Sunday 15th September 10am - 6pm

To book the performance please contact Caroline Cowley, Public Art Co-ordinator,
e: caroline.cowley@fingal.ie
t: 087 1201924
For further details visit www.fingalarts.ie / www.anurgentenquiry.com

Fingal County Council, along with Wexford County & Dublin City Council's are engaged in a collaboration of artists residencies where artists were selected to look at climate changes and it's effect on local biodiversity with communities and specialists along the east coast. This project is the culmination of 3 months in Fingal where our chosen artists were located at Resort Residency, Lynders Mobile Home Park Portrane.*